Sayyid Al-Hakeem Urges Preserving Popular Mobilization Forces as Key Security System Pillar

In Bashir Town in Kirkuk Governorate, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a gathering of sheikhs, dignitaries, and residents of Bashir, recalling the sacrifices of its people, and calling for preserving the victory that was achieved, constant vigilance and caution, thanking Allah for His blessings, showing humility, and maintaining readiness to confront challenges.

H.E. explained that Iraq has overcome security, political, and social challenges, pointing to the ability of Iraqis to turn challenges into opportunities, and calling for holding fast to the Popular Mobilization Forces as an important pillar of the security system. H.E. explained that the ISIS crisis proved the collusion of terrorism with the Saddamist Baath, and that their project was broken by the grace of Allah, the fatwa of the blessed Supreme Religious Authority, and the surge of Iraqis in defending their country, recalling the principle of Shaheed Al-Mihrab (may Allah sanctify his soul), who said that Islam in Iraq was preserved by the Religious Authority, the Husseini rituals, and the authentic Iraqi tribes.

H.E. also explained the nature of the economic challenge resulting from regional events, expressing confidence in Iraq's ability to overcome this challenge, as it overcame the political, social, and security challenges, and stressing meeting the demands of the people of Bashir and compensating the families of martyrs and the wounded.
