

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: current stability is sacrifices and blood of Iraqis outcome, everyone's responsibility to preserve it

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, received His Excellency the President of the Republic, Dr. Abdul Latif Jamal Rashid on 7/7/2023, and discussed the developments of the political scene in Iraq and the region and the role played by Iraq in converging points of view between the parties to serve the countries of the region and achieve the interests of their peoples, as well as discussing climate change and water scarcity and ways to overcome them.

His Eminence stressed that the current stability is the result of the sacrifices and blood given by the Iraqis of all components, indicating that maintaining stability and moving it from its current stage to the stage of permanent stability is the responsibility of everyone.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem also stressed that Iraq has overcome many problems, including the image of Iraq regionally and internationally, as the world today views Iraq with high respect and appreciation, and this will contribute to the flow of investments and capital to Iraq.

His Eminence pointed out that the next challenge is an economic one centered on the departure of the rentier state to the productive and diversified state, stressing the activation of productive sectors such as agriculture, industry, tourism, investment, and technology.
