

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Al-Hikma formation after stage requirements precise reading

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, affirmed by lighting its seventh flame that Al-Hikma National Project is now clearer for everyone to see than ever, as its foundation was the result of a careful understanding of the needs of the stage and the nature of the required method and discourse. It succeeded in abandoning partisan inwardness and ventured on all of the homeland achieving the desired goal of its foundation.

His Eminence stated: "As we celebrate the 6th anniversary of its launch which coincides this year with the anniversary of Ashura' Al-Hussein "PBUH" where we are inspired by lessons of reform and holding responsibility towards the nation from his approach "PBUH", we affirm that Al-Hikma National Movement always was, still, and will remain adhered to its objectives, believing in the slogan "Building a modern and just state" which have worked and will continue working to achieve this ultimate objective to serve the homeland and the people. It also affirms its obligation to support the youth and enable them to have roles commensurate with their social impact, in addition to empowering women and aiding them to acclaim higher positions in the state. We reiterate that our movement believes in the importance of modernizing discourse, reforming education, providing services and economic reform, the sovereignty of the state, and the rule of law as a guarantee for Iraq's renaissance.

We call upon the followers and leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement to adhere to their promise and vow to serve their homeland and people, we bless them for their enormous giving and dedication to the project."
