

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim stands by Jordan to achieve security and stability

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the Iraqi Coalition, expressed his solidarity with the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan. His Eminence tweeted on Sunday 4/4/2021, "We have followed with great concern the developments that the brotherly Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan has witnessed. We stand with the Kingdom's leadership and people, as we stand by it to achieve security and stability and to advance and be prosperous." Asking Allah Almighty to protect the brotherly neighboring country, Jordan, and the rest of the Arab country and give success and benevolence for their people to drive evil away.
