

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Calls on Tishreen Activists, Security Services to waive Reciprocal Lawsuits Between Them

Mr. Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqiun Alliance, called on Tishreen activists and the security services for the reciprocal waiver of the lawsuits between them to take the advantage of the blessed month of Ramadan. Those who filed Lawsuits against members of the security forces as well as the latter who initiated the same and filed lawsuits against activists, to waive their lawsuits and open a new page of brotherhood and citizenship. Sustainable. "Calling upon the Supreme Judicial Council to form a committee to waive these contradictory cases with the exception of cases of murder or those that caused permanent disability.