

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem Bless Iraqi Peasants, Farmers on Eid Al-Falah

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakeem, head of the Iraqiun Alliance blessed Peasants and Farmers on Thursday 4/15/2021, on Eid Al-Falah (Farmers National Day), seizing an opportunity in this occasion to emphasize Iraq's need to achieve self-sufficiency in crops and to reach the stage of exporting the surplus. His Eminence indicated that this requires a scientific and sober agricultural and irrigation policy by supporting peasants and farmers and paying the financial dues owed to them by the government on time. Also facilitating marketing procedures. As Well as providing them with modern technologies in mechanization and irrigation, easing routine obstacles, and restoring citizen confidence in the national product.
