

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem Extends Condolences Over Representative Adnan Al-Asadi's Death

head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, extended his condolences to the State of Law Coalition over the death of their representative, Mr. Adnan al-Asadi, as a result of complications from the Corona virus. His eminence tweeted on Thursday 22/4/2021, "It is with deep regret that we received the news of the death of the House of Representatives member and a leader in the State of Law coalition, Adnan Al-Asadi, due to complications of Corona virus. The deceased had different contributions in the Iraqi political field after 2003." "I pray to Allah Almighty to bless his soul with the breadth of his mercy. We extend our sincere condolences and sympathy to his family, relatives and dependents, and especially the brothers in the State of Law coalition, and to bless them with patience and solace."
