

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim visits Al-Nuri Mosque whilst in Nineveh

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the National State Powers Alliance, visited Al-Nuri Mosque in the city of Mosul, during his tour in Nineveh Province, today, Friday, July 2, 2021.

His Eminence met with several clerics and stressed the importance of rebuilding Al-Nuri Mosque and the entire ancient city that was affected by terrorism. H.E. noted that the process of targeting places of worship and the city's archaeological landmarks came to confirm that terrorism targets everyone without exception, calling for the need for cooperation and solidarity among all components to restore life to the city.
