

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem visits "Baituna" Mosul Foundation, confirms youth's ability to change

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, today, Friday, July 2, 2021, during his tour of Nineveh Province, visited Mosul's "Baituna" (Our Home) institution and met the young activists in charge of it.

His Eminence indicated that the presence of this developmental edifice amid the rubble represents a life message and an important lesson for others and future generations, saying: "Ideas begin as a thought and then matures into a big project."

H.E. called on young people to spread messages of reassurance, hope, and life and to spread a culture of optimism, stressing the ability of young people to change a negative image into a positive one that reflects the Iraqi reality
