

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem denounces terrorist attack on Yathrib

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, denounced the terrorist attack on a funeral in Yathrib.

His Eminence tweeted on Saturday, 31 July, 2021, “We followed with concern the terrorist attack that took place in a mourning council in Yathrib district in Saladin. The attack claimed the lives of about 25 martyrs and wounded. While we condemn this criminal act, we call on the relevant authorities to work seriously and professionally to bridge the fragile and loose gaps and maintain security and stability of the liberated areas.”
