

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem to Turkmen Front Leader: We stress equitable distribution of wealth among provinces

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, stressed the importance of the equitable distribution of wealth among the country's provinces according to their population ratios and also the need to hold the elections on their scheduled date on October 10 and work to provide electoral security, during his meeting with the head of the Turkmen Front, Mr. Hassan Turan, on Monday, August 2, 2021.

H.E. reiterated his support for the Turkmen component as a genuine Iraqi component within the Iraqi bouquet of roses and stressed the importance of the presence of the Turkmen component in the Iraqi state like other components.