

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem lauds Baghdad Conference, appreciates organizers efforts

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, lauded Baghdad Conference for Cooperation and Partnership, and appreciated the efforts of its organizers. His Eminence tweeted on Saturday, August 28, 2021, "Following the great success of the Baghdad Conference on Cooperation and Partnership at various levels. from the global media interest to passing through the good technical and logistical organization, and ending with the message that the conference conveyed to the world on Iraq's ability to host international events and its potential to become a point of convergence for parties, brothers, and friends, and that All unresolved files are presented on its discussion table."

His Eminence extended his gratitude to His Excellency the President of the Republic, Dr. Barham Salih, His Excellency Prime Minister Mustafa Al-Kadhimi, the Iraqi Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the guests of Iraq from Kings, Presidents, Princes, Ministers, all representatives of brotherly and friendly countries participating in the conference, and our Iraqi people for their hospitality and welcoming their guests. Adding "Thanks are in order to all the media efforts that resulted in the success of this significant historical event."