

Sayyid Al-Hakeem attends consecrating Father Daniel Al-Khoury as Bishop of Iraq ceremony

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, at the Cathedral of the Virgin Mary, to attend the ceremony of consecrating Father Daniel Khoury Timathios to the Episcopal Order to be Bishop of Iraq and Patriarchal Assistant to His Beatitude Bishop Mar Jacob Daniel. Wishing blessing to the Father for his Episcopal Order in Iraq and wishing him success in his new mission.

His Eminence illustrated the importance of the Christian component in Iraq as an immeasurable qualitative addition in society, as it is measured by enriching Iraqi diversity and culture. H.E. reiterated his call for the voluntary return of the immigrants to contribute to building the Iraqi experience and preserving its diversity.