

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem receives Abdulmahdi, stresses reviewing complaints and appeals seriously

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, met the honorable former Prime Minister Adil Abdulmahdi and discussed the political scene development in Iraq, the results of the elections, the ways which can develop the Iraqi reality, and achieve the people's aspiration through providing job opportunities and enforce the rule of law. On Thursday morning, October 14, 2021,

His Eminence illustrated the importance of joining hands together to form a national government that expresses people's aspirations and warned that the results might result in a political blockage that the Supreme Religious Reference warned from. H.E. also emphasized putting the public interest over the personal one and work in favor of serving people with all of their colors and affiliation, and affirmed the necessity of results appeals and the realistic complaints to be taken seriously by the Independent High Electoral Committee and the Judicial Institution.
