

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem heads Al-Hikma Movement's Opinions Committee's meeting, discusses the political scene's development

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, heads the Opinions Committee of Al-Hikma National Movement meeting on Saturday, November 13, 2021, where H.E. discussed political affairs and the results of the recent elections as well as explored possible upcoming stage scenarios and the role of Al-Hikma Movement in them.

His Eminence affirmed the necessity of pacification and dialogue to relieve the current political crisis, stating that the role of Al-Hikma Movement is to converge everyone on the same view and invest all of the probable possibilities, especially the good relations with everyone.

His Eminences called to run field campaigns, provide services for the people, connect with them, and affirm internal building, and be prepared for what's next. H.E. reiterated the Movement's position to review the appeals and complaints to reinforce the transparency of the electoral process and regain the trust in the democratic system.