

Sayyid Al-Hakeem condemns Basrah bombing, calls security not to lax

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, condemned the suicide bombing in Basrah, targeting safe citizens today and causing many martyrs and wounded.

His Eminence tweeted on Tuesday, December 7, 2021, "We were struck at the fall of several safe citizens, victims are wounded and martyrs by a treacherous bombing near Al-Jamhuri Hospital, in Basrah's Downtown."

Hos Eminence strongly condemned this sinful attack and urged the security services to not get lax nor be reassured as this will create opportunities for the sleeping terror cell to target the citizens.
