

Sayyid Al-Hakeem to the head of the Iraqi Red Crescent Organization: We call to address the displaced crisis & aid the stranded

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, commended the efforts made by the Iraqi Red Crescent. During His Eminence meeting with Dr. Yassin Al-Maamouri, head of the Iraqi Red Crescent Organization, today, Wednesday, 8 December 2021, he called for a double effort to address the crisis of the displaced and the repeated cases of migration and to rescue the stranded among them. Indicating the importance of the independence of NGOs and the need for their presence in all aspects of life and to contribute to the advancement of Iraq and its people.