

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: we call on free people to ensure mass genocides never recur

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, On the International Day of Commemoration of the Victims of the Genocide, December 9, 2021, recalled in a statement the victims of Halabja and Anfal and the massacres of executions that affected Iraqis with their scholars and their various segments during the era of the eradicated dictatorship, and the subsequent crimes against humanity on the hand of ISIS terrorism before and after 2014, stressing that it represents systematic crimes of genocide, pointing out the need to perpetuate it and honor its victims and their families financially and incorporeal. Addressing his call to the free people of the world to work to ensure that it does not recur and prevent its occurrence.