

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls government to provide allocations to end substitute teachers' crisis

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, demanded the government to provide allocations to contain the substitute teachers.

His Eminence tweeted on 29 December 2021, "We're in solidarity with the lecturers' legal claims and demand the government and the concerned authorities and consider their claims, assure them, and work to provide financial allocations to contain their crises calling to value their efforts in filling the needs where ever needed.
