

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: the memory of the martyrs Suleimani and Al-Muhandis requires politicians' unification to overcome upcoming challenges

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, stated that the memory of the Martyrs Abu Mahdi Al-Muhandis and Iraq's guest General Qassim Suleimani demands the unification of politicians to face the challenges to come.

His Eminence tweeted on 2 January 2022, "On the second memory of their martyrdom, we recall the good deeds of Abu Mahdi Al-Muhandis and Iraq's Guest General Qassim Suleimani, whose names are engraved in the memory and consciousness of our people and the free peoples due to their stances in confronting terrorism and defeating its dark schemes."

His Eminence cleared that this occasion mandates the unification of the national politics against the upcoming challenges and to compromise for the interest of the country and its fatal matters, also it is imperative to work on a unified vision to pave the way to form a service national government that works in tandems and an active parliament that legislate and observe with no hinders nor political agendas.
