

Sayyid Al-Hakeem on journalists grant: we hope to facilitate the grant through modern technology

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, expressed hope in the journalists and reporters grant and all segments that are included by the grant to have it given with more procedures being facilitated for the recipients to avoid long waiting hours and the restrictions of the bureaucracy.

His Eminence tweeted on Wednesday, 19 January 2022, "We are hoping that the media and reporters grant and all segments that are included by the grant to have it given with more procedures being facilitated for the recipients to avoid long waiting hours and the restrictions of the bureaucracy. We urge the relevant authorities to address this at the earliest convenience."

His Eminence called the governmental departments and institutions to facilitate the procedures, avoid bureaucracy and old managerial methods, and invest in modern technology such as moving toward E-Governance to ease the pressure of the Iraqi citizen.
