

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem sponsors event of Al-Sayyida Al-Zahra's birth, calls to follow her method in defending Islam & its straight path

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, in a ceremony to celebrate Al-Zahra the pure, met several martyrs' families and their orphans, in addition to several leading female figures in Al-Hikma National Movement on Friday, 21 January 2022, and His Eminence congratulated them on the birth of the mistress of all the women in the world "may Allah peace be upon Her", stating her role in Islam and the development of the nation, as she assumed the mother and daughter figure to her father "may Allah peace be upon him", the good wife who sacrifices to her husband, and the caring mother for her pure children "may Allah peace be upon each and every one of them."

His Eminence stated that Al-Zahra' has taken a special method in objecting as she didn't falter and merge with the reality that was imposed on her, she didn't rely on armed conflicts, but she fought her reality in numerous peaceful ways. She didn't take the side of Ali "PBUH" due to her being his spouse, but to defend the truth and the messenger's method. His Eminence called to follow Al-Zahra's method "PBUH", as we follow the method of approaching everyone, work on converging views and partners on the commonality, and not follow the method of distorting each other's images.

His Eminence also called for the work to be pure in serving Allah and the citizens of our country through field visits, embracing everyone, sustainable training, and capacity development.
