

Sayyid Al-Hakeem warns against uncontainable global crisis due to Eastern European unrest

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, warned against a grand global crisis that will be hard to contain due to eastern Europe's unrest, unless reason and mind have the final word.

His Eminence tweeted on Ukrainian events on 24 February 2022, "Filled with concern we follow the security instability in eastern Europe. War was declared between Russia and Ukraine, which warns against a grand global crisis that will be hard to contain unless the language of reason and pacification is used, ceasefire, and everyone sitting on the dialogue table to avoid grave dangers that will have a bad impact on the peoples of the two countries and the neighboring countries."

His Eminence stated that we rely on the international community, the United Nations, and the Security Council to take urgent steps to defuse the crisis, and encourage people to ceasefire and negotiate as soon as possible.
