

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: largest component preservation is a forefront for balance and achieving stability

During his visit to Basra Al-Fayhaa, His Eminence Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met Al-Aidan tribe, where he met its sheiks and dignitaries in the host of Sheik Abdulameer Al-Aidani 9/3/2022. H.E. indicated the importance of preserving the rights of the largest component as a prelude to achieving balance and stability that preserves the rights of all national components.

His Eminence said that financial abundance is a double-edged sword, if it is allocated in its right place then it will be a blessing for the citizen, and if not then it will be heading to fill the pockets of those who are corrupt. We demand transparent management to manage these abundances for us to have a rich country and rich people. His eminence called to prioritize the agricultural sector through supporting income-makers Such as seeds, fertilizers, pesticides, fuel, and mechanization.

H.E. pointed to the importance of expanding the social protection network and raising the level of grants.

His Eminence called to activate the law of Basra, the economic capital of Iraq, where the law notes the rights and economic status of Basra, stressing the importance of paying what the federal government owes towards the oil-producing provinces from petrodollars.
