

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to modernize religious discourse, address social and cultural deviations

During his meeting with a group of informative leaders in Shaheed Al-Mihrab Foundation on 31/3/2022, and after listening to their valuable interventions and discussing with them the importance of religious discourse in raising awareness and educating the community, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, called to invest the blessed month of Ramadan in consolidating this mission. And investing in the public's rush towards acts of worship and submission in this holy month.

His Eminence stressed the importance of modernizing the discourse and confronting negative and perverted social and cultural occurrences and urged them to assume their responsibilities in confronting these phenomena and communicating with people to dismantle them and define their seriousness.

His Eminence called for identifying the keys to communicating with the public and investing in social media as important platforms to inform, alert, and spread awareness because of their impact and role in people's lives. H.E. indicated the need to confront the negative generalization, as those mistakes are borne by their owners and cannot be attributed to a specific party.

His Eminence also called for integration between religious scholars and academic personalities, indicating their importance to achieve the supreme goal of educating and fortifying society.
