

Sayyid Al-Hakeem expresses support for UN initiative to stop war in Yemen

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, expressed his support for the UN initiative to stop the war in Yemen.

His Eminence tweeted on 2/4/2022, "With great optimism, we follow the developments of the Yemeni file, the latest of which is the ceasefire initiative proposed by the United Nations to end a crisis that lasted 7 years and left large numbers of civilian casualties, as well as the destruction of infrastructure and disruption of the interests of the country and people. We announce our full support for this initiative"

His Eminence urged all conflicting parties to quickly adopt it as a favorable opportunity to end the war and launch a comprehensive dialogue that would be a gateway to restoring a happy Yemen, its luster and prosperity.
