

Sayyid Al-Hakeem warns of malicious schemes to stir up sedition, calls government to deal firmly with it

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, called on the Iraqi people and Islamic peoples to be aware of the malicious schemes that are taking place to stir up sedition, calling on the government and the judiciary to deal firmly with anyone who the sanctities of our people.

His Eminence tweeted on Wednesday 13/4/2022 "The recent transgression of the holy shrines and the call for their demolition and removal is deplorable and rejected. It is based on suspicious projects and deviant ideas and visions at a dangerous and sensitive timing, especially since the perpetrators of this call are well aware of the high status of these shrines and their significant value and great importance in the hearts of millions of Muslims in Iraq and the world."
