

Sayyid Al-Hakeem Imam Al-Hassan “PBUH” suffered adversity, dealt with it wisely to rob ruler’s legitimacy

In his meeting with leaders of the Himam Student Association, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem blessed them with the advent of the blessed month of Ramadan, and the anniversary of the birth of the noble Ahl al-Bayt, Imam Hassan Al-Mujtaba “peace be upon him” 16/4/2022, indicating that he “PBUH” suffered from societal groups and difficult circumstances that he dealt with deeply and wisely, as he suffered from the counter-military machine, the media machine, campaigns of distortion and underestimation, from the utilitarian and reformers, from those who confronted without depth and knowledge of the facts of events, and from the Kharijites, in addition to some of his loyalists who did not understand the depth of his positions.

His Eminence explained the nature of the peace that Imam Al-Mujtaba adopted with his opponent and the conditions that he stipulated, which seemed at the time to be simple conditions, but in their depth, they robbed the ruler of legitimacy and triumphed over the injustices of the people of Iraq.

His Eminence called to spread the positives and the state of optimism and confront negative generalization and adhere to moderation and normality, the national project, and self-development scientifically and culturally, stressing the importance of understanding Al-Hikma project, making it known, adhering to the Movement’s identity, and move on the qualitative people who are able to understand and defend positions.
