

Sayyid Al-Hakeem praises Commander of the Faithful's visit success efforts over his martyrdom anniversary

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, praised the efforts that made a success of the million's visit to Al-Najaf Al-Ashraf to commemorate the martyrdom of Imam Ali "PBUH". His Eminence tweeted, "the city of the Commander of the Faithful "PBUH", Al-Najaf Al-Ashraf on the anniversary of his painful martyrdom, it held millions of visitors from both inside and outside Iraq. The success of this million's ritual was the result of strenuous efforts that continued day and night and involved various types of governmental and private logistical support, including ministries, security forces, and Husseini processions."

His Eminence praised the role of the people of Al-Najaf Al-Ashraf, who opened their homes to receive visitors, as well as the efforts of the Holy Alewian Shrine.

"All of this necessitates that we stand for all these efforts with gratitude, reverence, and homage, asking the Almighty to accept them with His good acceptance.
