

Sayyid Al-Hakeem shares Iftar table with internal departments students, emphasizes diversity management & preservation

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, congratulated the students of the internal departments of the University of Baghdad on the blessed month of Ramadan, and the advent of the blessed Eid Al-Fitr, Wednesday 27/4/2022, asking Allah Almighty, the Blessed and Exalted, to make it a feast of blessing in which the giving to our people, our nation, and all humanity will be abundant.

In his speech, His Eminence said that in youth, a person is distinguished by pride, energy, and enthusiasm, and can go long strides in a record time, calling for attention to building oneself and the future through the acquisition of knowledge, diligence, and insistence on achieving success.

His Eminence showed that the level of intelligence is high among the Iraqi people, especially the youth, who make up 70% of our people, and Iraqis hold a higher position amongst the peoples of the world when it comes to intelligence. Wherever the Iraqi is, will achieve great achievements if given the opportunity. H.E. urged to see the positives and bright points in our Iraqi reality, and the many great success stories and talk about them and highlight them and turn them into a real tributary to address the negatives and overcome challenges and turn them into real opportunities. The bigger the adversity, the bigger and more promising opportunities that are born from its womb.

His Eminence said, "Our people are rich in national, regional, religious, and sectarian diversity, and this diversity constitutes an element of enrichment and strength for the Iraqi society, and we have to take care of managing and investing it in the right way, and this diversity and idiosyncrasies must be respected and cherished within the framework of the unifying national identity," noting that the youth, are among the sons of our people that do not suffer from the sedimentation and decadence of the past, so we need young people with vigor and determination to express their abilities, potentials, and ambitions to take their chance and actively contribute to the leadership and construction of this country, urging the youth to take the Noble Prophet as a role model with the need to adhere to our identity, our homeland, our people, and our land.
