

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: One of the reasons for the current political impasse is the numerical decline of the powers of moderation and balance

In his meeting with a group of the organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in Baghdad on 30/4/2022, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, called for investing the last days of the blessed month of Ramadan in obedience and getting closer to Allah Almighty, praising the organizational efforts of the leaders of Al-Hikma in Baghdad, adding that The capital has its own peculiarity as the methods and tools may change from one region to another, describing the men of Al-Hikma as the men of the field and its ambassadors to the Iraqi society.

In his speech, His Eminence said that one of the reasons for the political impasse is the numerical decline of the powers of moderation and balance, stressing the selection of efficient and loyal personalities with the need to follow the example of the Messenger of Allah “may Allah bless him and his family” and his approach in defending his project bearing all the consequences, while he affirmed the patriotism of Al-Hikma’s Project in its defense for all components the moment they are targeted and rights withheld.

His Eminence made it clear that high positions require facing great challenges, and all missionary personalities faced a wave of defamation, isolation, and abuse, and the symbols of Al-Hikma and its leaders are not an exception to what the owners of large projects have been exposed to, indicating that the founding work requires time, rooting, prolongation, and trust in Allah Almighty, and Al-Hikma is a Movement that is not measured by the number of its seats in the House of Representatives, but by its influence and acceptance by all, calling for a balanced majority and a balanced opposition, with the importance of ensuring the opposition's right to perform its tasks and granting it encouraging privileges.
