

On World Red Cross and Red Crescent Day, Sayyid Al-Hakeem praises relief organizations' efforts, calls to end to displacement file

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, praised the efforts of the Red Crescent and the Red Cross in providing relief to the afflicted and the deprived, calling for the displacement file and the return of the displaced.

His Eminence tweeted on 9/5/2022, "On World Red Cross and Red Crescent Day, we can only extend our congratulations to the unknown soldiers working to provide relief to the afflicted and the deprived everywhere and to mitigate the effects of disasters and wars.

International and local relief organizations played an important role in providing relief to the displaced and immigrants from ISIS and the multiple titles of terrorism, and on this occasion, we call to end the displacement file and work to return the displaced to their areas and address its economic and social effects."
