

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: "Reform projects start strange and fought, project owners look at the project, not their roles"

In his meeting with a group of veterans in Najaf Al-Ashraf Province on 1/6/2022, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, recalled the important stations in the face of dictatorship, praising the role of the originals in explaining the nature of the political changes of Iraqi society and their proximity to the public and their interactions with them, recalling with reform projects in every time and place, how it begins strange and targeted and exposed to injustice and marginalization.

His Eminence made it clear that the sincere leadership feels the weight of responsibility, and that the bearers of the project are first to be followed, so the owner of the project does not look at his role and place as much as he looks at the role of the project and its position and influence in the nation, adding that the school of the Shaheed Al-Mihrab "may his soul be sanctified" is a school of work, challenge, struggle, facing inconveniences, transforming challenges into opportunities, and awaken determination in the most sluggish and weak stages, pointing to the success of Al-Hikma National Movement in being a link between everyone and a national station for convergence of views, and it has succeeded so far in limiting differences to the stages of conflict or the like.

His Eminence indicated that "the forces of moderation are being targeted for their role in the political scene," explaining that the crisis has proven that the political and social status of Al-Hikma is not linked to the number of seats, and this is due to the speech of Al-Hikma National Movement, the clarity of its vision and its ideal relations with everyone
