

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: sufficiency jihad fatwa revealed Iraqi educational and knowledge building to the public opinion

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, stated that the fatwa of sufficient jihad revealed to the public opinion the knowledge and educational structure of the Iraqi people.

His Eminence tweeted on 13/6/2022, "On its eighth anniversary, we recall the Fatwa of sufficiency jihad issued by the Supreme Religious Authority, which was not only limited to mobilizing the zealous, but revealed to the general public opinion the educational and knowledge building of the Iraqi people, with its segments, clans, old and young people, and its close connection with its Religious Authority."

His Eminence illustrated that the blessed fatwa united the Iraqis, despite the diversity of their sects, nationalities, and even their political and cultural convictions, in the trench of a single destiny that triumphed by breaking the thorn of terrorism, restoring matters, and liberating the land from the claws of the wicked.

Blessed is the supreme religious authority, and blessed are zealous of this land who answered its call, and blessed those who sacrificed and their families. His Eminence added.
