

Sayyid Al-Hakeem discusses the political scene developments, region's events with Sarhang Hama

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, discussed with Mr. Sarhang Hama Saeed, Director of Middle East Programs at the American Institute of Peace on 21/06/2022, developments in the political scene in Iraq and the region and events in more than one international arena and the extent to which Middle Eastern countries are affected by them, stressing that Iraq stems from its interests in a manner that preserves its sovereignty in its relations with the countries of the world, with Iraq's keenness to build strong relations with all countries, and the stability of Iraq is stability for the region and the world.