

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to invest money abundance to support country's productive sectors

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, recalled with the sheiks and dignitaries of the generous Albu Amir clans and the sheiks and dignitaries of the Rashidiya and Hussainiya districts, and in the guest-place of Sheik Ghanim Dira' Al-Fayyadh, the relationship with the Iraqi clans, and paused to recall how the cult leader, Grand Ayatullah, Imam Sayyid Mushin Al-Hakeem "MASHS" and affirmed that Iraq is getting better and called to confront projects that try to exaggerate the negatives and diminish the positives. H.E. stressed the need to take pride in what has been accomplished and to maintain the ambition to achieve even more.

His Eminence renewed his call for a national service government capable of bridging the relationship between the political system and the citizen and restoring confidence and stressed that the formation of a government of efficient and effective personalities with an administrative and professional history is capable of reassuring the Iraqi people and giving a dash of hope while stressing the containment of everyone without breaking anyone.

His Eminence called to invest in Iraq's potential, diversify sources of income, abandon the mono-income state, and invest the financial abundance to support the agricultural, industrial, investment, and tourism productive sectors.
