

Sayyid Al-Hakeem to Al-Sudani: Iraq needs efficient, balanced service government

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement at his office in Baghdad, received Mr. Mohammed Shiaa Al-Sudani, the candidate for the next Government's presidency on 26/7/2022, congratulating him for being assigned by the powers of the Coordination Framework, wishing him well and the best of luck in the next task. Even though we are not participating in his government.

His Eminence reiterated the importance of forming a national service government capable of fulfilling the aspirations of the Iraqi people and meeting their urgent demands. And also adopt priorities within a focused and concise program while empowering competent and impartial personalities away from quotas. H.E. called for field visits, approaching people, dedicating attention to provinces, diversifying sources of income, sustaining security momentum, and preserving the achievements. H.E. also emphasized balancing internal and external relations and pointed out that Iraq's interest is in the openness to all in what guarantees its interests and preserves its sovereignty.
