

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls for dialogue to achieve desired reform & change

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the Japanese Ambassador in Baghdad, His Excellency Kotaro Suzuki, on Saturday 3/9/2022, reiterated the importance of benefiting from the Japanese experience in reconstruction and construction and achieving sustainable development. His Eminence also wished His Excellency success in his new duties after the end of his work in Baghdad and appreciated the diplomatic role he played in Iraq.

His Eminence demonstrated the good reputation enjoyed by Japanese companies as he called for investing this in pioneering projects in Iraq, pointing out the similarity between the political and social conditions experienced by the two countries.

His Eminence illustrated the nature of political changes in Iraq and the need to end the current political crisis by invoking the constitution, the law, and legitimate state institutions. H.E. Stressed that Iraq cannot be reduced to a political, sectarian, or national point of view. Everyone's interest lies in the participation of everyone in decision-making and reiterated his call to adopt dialogue as a way to achieve the desired reform and change.
