

Bleeds our hearts, twinges our conscience, Sayyid Al-Hakeem recalls Al-Najat Church attack

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, recalled the tragic Al-Najat Church attack and what the prayers of the Christian component endured at the hands of the Takfiri terrorism.

His Eminence tweeted on 31/10/2022, "On its 12th anniversary, the painful tragedy of Al-Najat Church which targeted our beloved Christian component at the hands of blind terrorism still bleeds our souls and hearts and revokes our conscience. We still remember those difficult hours that haunted all Iraqis as they received the painful news of unarmed people being held hostage during performing their religious rituals. Mercy and eternity to the martyrs of this painful tragedy and all of Iraq's martyrs."
