

Sayyid Al-Hakeem meets Da'wa Party delegation, Iraq Organization, confirms Mr. Al-Sudani's Government success opportunities

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met the delegation of the Islamic Da'wa Party of Iraq headed by Dr. Khudaier Al-Khuzai on 15/11/2022, where developments in the political landscape in Iraq and the region and the Government's path to service delivery, employment and bridging the relationship between the citizen and the political system were discussed.

H.E. affirmed that restoring citizens' confidence in his political system is related to the level of services and providing his legitimate aspirations. Reiterating his vision of Al-Sudani's Government with international and regional support, financial abundance, parliamentary cover, and security stability, His Eminence, however, called for contributing to its political, nationalist, and media success.
