

Sayyid Al-Hakeem meets Therwan Clan's dignitaries, warns against organized attacks to amplify negatives, diminish positives

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met sheiks and dignitaries of Al-Therwan Clan, which is a part of Imaret Banu Hasan in the Middle Euphrates on 26/11/2022, where His Eminence, recalled the common history shared with the sheiks and dignitaries of this generous tribe, also recalled its heroic history in vital stages in the history of Iraq in fighting terrorism.

H.E. renewed his vision of the pillars that preserved the Islamic identity and saved Iraq, those represented by the religious reference, the Hussein rituals, and the Iraqi clans. H.E. illustrated that skipping any of the pillars of this equation will disrupt the political landscape and the testimonies are abundant.

H.E. pointed out the harsh political situation that overcame Iraq in the past year, where the political impasse that Iraq has undergone, due to the unbalanced results produced by the elections. H.E. also pointed out Mr. Al-Sudani's government success factors, which are regional and international support, relative financial abundance, security stability, and the Prime Minister's climb of ranks which makes him well aware of the crises and issues and their solutions.

H.E. reiterated his call to take care of the provinces and hold the Minister's monthly session in every province. H.E. also warned against a directed attack that targets amplifying the negatives and mocking and diminishing the positives, urging everyone to observe realistically, have patience, and the ambitions must equal the available capabilities.
