

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to diversify income sources, end rentier state

At the guest place of Banu Hasan, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met a generous group of sheiks and dignitaries of Al-Tharwan Clan and Banu Hasan, headed by Sheikh Hameed Najim Al-Ogaili Al-Tharwani, and discussed with them the political and social landscape, as well as the factors of the current government's success, and supporting it to achieve its program and public interest.

H.E. called to diversify Iraqi sources of income and put an end to the rentier state, emphasizing the importance of investing the relative financial abundance in activating the productive sectors such as agriculture, industry, and tourism, and providing a safe environment for investments.

H.E. also urged everyone to confront the negatives and triumph for the reputation of Iraq, indicating that Iraq is moving towards goodness, due to the sacrifices and stands of everyone.
