

Sayyid Al-Hakeem commends Al-Bouhoueimid clan's historic role to fight dictatorship, confront terrorism

The guest place of Al-Bouhoueimid clan, hosted by Sheikh Kadhum Al-Henoon was the last stop on the tour of Holy Karbala of Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, the head of the National Wisdom Movement on 15/12/2022, H.E. met a group of sheikhs, dignitaries, and sons of this clan praising the generosity of its people and its generous hosts, pointing to the relationship he shares with Karbala's clans that is deeply rooted and present in all pivotal stages of modern Iraq.

H.E. discussed with the sheikhs and dignitaries of Al-Bouhoueimid clan the developments of the political landscape and the opportunities for the success of the current government and the need to support it and wait it out to achieve its vision and program. H.E. illustrated the nature of the Prime Minister and his career in identifying problems that made him procedural and administrative personnel all at the same time, while H.E. also called to confront projects that seek to demonize and dwarf everything to create frustration and a negative environment.