

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq overcome challenges thanks to its sons' sacrifices, support for leaders

At the guest place of Banu Aridh clans, the guest place of Sheikh Abdulhameed Abdulkareem Al-Aridhi on 23/12/202, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a group of elders and dignitaries of this generous clan, recalling with them the honorable history they shared through a march filled with sacrifices to serve Iraq and the national interest.

H.E. illustrated that Iraq faced many challenges after 2003, including terrorism, anxiety about democracy, freedom, new political realities, and the presence of components in political decision-making. H.E. assured that Iraq has overcome all these challenges thanks to Allah Almighty and the sacrifices of its sons.

H.E. called for the support of the current Government in its national interest to provide services and jobs while emphasizing the departure of negativity, self-flagellation, and negative media, and the importance of pride in the Iraqi experience.
