

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to adhere to Diyala's social fabric, civil peace

At the host of Sheik Ayad Khaleel Al-Mahdawi in Al-Muqdadiya district, Diyala on 2/3/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem met several sheiks and dignitaries from the district and reiterated the importance of adhering to the security and political stability and to stop anyone attempting to take us a step backward. His Eminence illustrated that Diyala enjoys security and social stability due to the sacrifices made by the Iraqi people, and Diyala especially.

H.E. called to maintain Arabic, regional and global openness, illustrating that Iraq hosting several Arabic, regional, and global conventions indicate Iraq's recovery and points towards the positive reading of its current situation. H.E. stressed building relationships that are in line with its interest without the game of axes and forcing a party to be hostile toward another.

H.E. reiterated support for agriculture and farmers and to transform agriculture into a productive and lucrative process. H.E. also called to automate agriculture and bring in modern irrigation techniques to reform the land and provide jobs.
