

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Usury and Usurers are injustice testament

In the fourth Ramadan lecture, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem continued to talk about the testaments of the injustice in the Holy Quran, as part of his search for the right of hand in his explanation of the letter of rights of Imam Zayn al-Abidin Ali bin Al-Hussein "PBUT".

His Eminence said: "The Holy Quran once expressed injustice in its conduct and actions and once in person as individuals or groups", noting that the Usury and loan sharks represented the seventeenth testament of injustice. the Holy Quran described them as unjust by virtue of the impact on the world and the aftermath.

We also point out the lure poets who have adopted poetry to lie and skate are another testament of injustice, stating that "In doing so, we are done with the testament of injustice's conduct", referring to the testament of injustice in the Quran, namely people, and individuals. H.E. explained that Qaroon was one of them and that he did not respond to the calls of the mentors after God gave him money and opportunities. One of the pieces of advice that Qaroon didn't take was to be humble and work for the aftermath, feel the needs and requirements of people, s needs and needs, avoiding prostitution and corruption on earth while taking a share of this world".
