

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq switched from conflict to perfection and integration

In the generous Basrah, at the guest place of Sayyids Al-Battat, the host of Sayyid Sabah and Sayyid Aziz Al-Battat on Friday, 5/5/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met a group of genuine Sayyids, Sheiks, and dignitaries of Al-Basrah and Az Zubayr clans, recalling the historical relationship they share, indicating that the relationship wasn't born yesterday, yet it was the fruit of the historical bonds and positions over the centuries.

His Eminence indicated that Iraq is living in a state of security, political, social, and economic stability, with everything being supported and strengthened by the people. H.E. stated that Iraq moved away from conflict and into a state of integration and perfection, affirming that Iraq is on the right path and that the broader the state of stability the closer we get to the state of permanent stability.

H.E. affirmed that permanent stability needs integration of interest with the state of stability, illustrating the nature of the regional and national reading of Iraq's reality. Iraq is perceived as an inclined line and accomplished several achievements while saving precious time, stating that Iraq is part of a regional and international system, and experiments have proven that Iraq's stability is a condition for the stability of the region and the world.

H.E. also stated that Iraq's problem is linked to earlier stages with foreign interference, and having Iraq an open field for dwells, stating that Iraq has abandoned the state of escalation and transformed into a regional and international dialogue oasis.

H.E. thanked the people of Basrah for contributing to the success of the 25th Gulf Cup and called to adhere to the positives and spread them by turning them into daily conversations while also demanding to abandon the negatives.
