

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to provide safe investment environment for Basrah

During his visit to the Host of the Sawaid Tribe, the Mashaal clan in Madinah district in Basra governorate, the guest place of Sheikh Hussein Hardan Al Attiyah, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, thanked the sheiks, dignitaries, and sons of this genuine clan, lauding the grand role of Basrah's and northern Basrah's clans, especially Al-Sawaid's in fighting dictatorship and terrorism, making the Martyr of the Altar "May Allah be content with him" keen on entering Iraq through Basrah to value and laud its sons on their sacrifices to defend Iraq and its sanctities.

His eminence referred to the challenges experienced by Iraq and Iraqis, and thanks to their patience, we have begun to see good beginnings to unblocking the situation in addition to Iraq's transition from instability to stability, construction, and rebuilding. H.E. stated that the problem of water scarcity can be addressed through scientific management of water through the use of modern irrigation methods that significantly reduce water waste, and emphasized the importance of diversifying sources of income, and abandoning the rentier state which relies heavily on oil exports by paying attention to the Pentagon of Agriculture, Industry, Tourism, Investment, and Technology which requires great effort and synergy of efforts to provide a safe environment for investment companies.
