

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq lives unprecedented stability stage

At the beginning of His Eminence's visit to the Kurdistan Iraq Region, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met Sheik Ali Bapir, the president of the Kurdistan Justice Group, and discussed the political landscape developments in Iraq and the region.

H.E. illustrated the nature of the political variable, which is represented in the state of political, security, and social stability in Iraq, reiterating that it is an unprecedented state of stability that needs sustainability and development to reach a state of permanent stability and achieve the Iraqi people's aspirations.

H.E. illustrated that the government is keen on addressing all kinds of outstanding issues, providing services, and restoring citizens' trust in the political system. H.E. also affirmed the regional and international acceptance of the government and Baghdad becoming the meeting point of the region's factions. Moreover, H.E. affirmed the importance of Kurdistan's stability to Iraq, and experiences have proven that Iraq needs all fields to be stable.