

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Al-Hikma Movement paid its moderation and centrism tax

As part of his visit to Kirkuk Governorate, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a group of organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in the governorate, stressing the need to get acquainted with the project of Al-Hikma National Movement and adhere to the approach of moderation, centrism, and patriotism.

His Eminence stressed the need to preserve the rights of components to express their national, sectarian, and religious identities, and that all these addresses should come together within the framework of the national address and the unifying national identity, stressing the need to focus on community service and not listen to the voices of confusion and defamation, indicating that moderation and centrism is a tax paid by Al-Hikma National Movement and will be paid as long as the positions express a national interest.
